FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USCA Seniors/Masters Championships
Set for December in West Palm Beach, Florida

The 23rd USCA Seniors/Masters Croquet Championships will be held on the lawns at the National Croquet Center in West Palm Beach, Florida on December 3-7, 2013. Fifty-seven players from throughout the United States and Canada are expected to compete in three flights of both singles and doubles on the Center's courts. This American Rules tournament will consist of separate flights for Seniors age 60 - 69 and Masters 70+ in Championship, First, and Second Flight singles. There will be combined Seniors and Masters flights for both Championship, First, and Second Flight doubles.

Last year's Seniors Championship winner Mike Gibbons of New York as well as Masters Championship winner David McCoy, from New York and Wellington, FL. will vie for their titles again. Three-time Masters Singles Champion Fred Jones from Venice, Florida will also be trying to regain his title. The tournament direction will be a joint effort between USCA President Johnny Mitchell and NCC Director of Croquet Bill Mead.

Spectators and guests are welcome and should contact Erica Sherman at (561) 478-0760 or tournamentusca@aol.com for additional information.
