Immediate release June 19, 2013

An historic event will begin on June 21, 2013. This event to draw attention to Alzheimer's disease will begin at 5:30am at the Denver Croquet Club in Denver's Washington Park. The longest day of CROQUET will be played on the longest day, June 21st.

The event is organized by Jiminy Wicket. Their "Through Hoops to Hope" program is supported by the members of the Denver Croquet Club.

All are invited, young and old alike to come out and create some fun and laughter. Children can bring their Mom's and Dad's and grand-parents to enjoy this traditional family game together. All ages and abilities are welcome. All equipment and simple instruction will be provided.

Play begins at 5:30am and ends at 8:30pm.
