

ONTARIO OPEN 2012

The 2012 Ontario Open was held in St. Catharines on August 24-26. There were thirteen participants who enjoyed the hot weather and good playing conditions. Meals at the Club were hosted by Chef Bill Losier and the Saturday evening meal was hosted by Vicki and Pat Little.

Play began with two blocks and after that, there were two flights: Championship and First Flight. There were many close matches but surprisingly Brian Cumming and Chris Loat advanced to the final. (Okay one was a surprise; you guess which one.)

We were fortunate to have two Scottish International, Bill Spalding and Fergus McInnes, join us in the Tournament. Russell Brown from the United States added to the international flavor. In all there were five Canadians who have represented their country playing in the Open.

The final was a closely contested match. A mistake late in the match by Loat provided Cumming with the chance he needed to win the final by a 26-18 score.

In the First Flight, Jim Wright defeated Dolores Gallagher.
