Croquet has suddenly exploded in Canada especially in the Toronto area. On Thursday, July 11, the Toronto Cricket, Skating and Curling Club (TCC) held the 23rd annual Doubles tournament on its large expansive cricket field with the best players in the country, men and women.

Paul Emmett, member of the club, was the Tournament Director and the format was 2 games, with the winners moving into a 60 minute final for the handsome, large Mary Graham Prentice Trophy.

The TCC club staff turned out three full-sized courts with well-trimmed grass in front of the elaborate clubhouse.

Honorary guest of the event was Ron Aldredge, a long-time member of the club and the individual who purchased the croquet equipment and hoops to launch the club on its popular sport of croquet.

The winning doubles team was Paul Emmett and Ian MacGregor

Linda Prentice served as Social Director.

The tournament was the 23rd annual sponsored by William B. Prentice, TCC Club member and longtime ACA member.
