USCA 2018 Southeast Regional Golf Croquet Tournament

Article by Tournament Director Cheryl Bromley

Eighteen players from New York, Maryland, Wisconsin, Missouri, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia competed in the 2018 USCA SE GC Regional held recently at the Chesapeake Bay Croquet Club in Hartfield, VA.

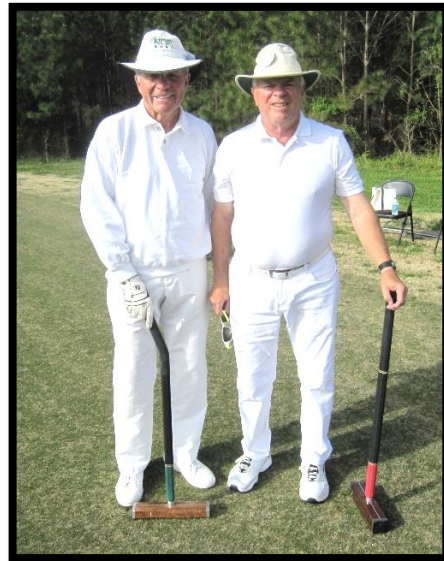

Players were treated to extra helpings of warm southern hospitality as they competed over four days of singles and doubles block play and knock out rounds.

Jeff Soo captured both the singles and doubles titles in the Championship flight. Enroute to the singles final, Soo battled sharpshooter, Justin Berbig, to move past the semi-finals with a 6-7, 7-1, 7-2 victory. In the finals, Soo prevailed over Macey White with a 7-1, 7-6 win. White's long jump shot at hoop #13 in the second game made it through the hoop but, pulled Soo's ball along with it giving Soo the tiebreaker win. White's road to the finals included a 7-4, 7-3 win over Cheryl Bromley in the semi-finals before facing Soo in the title match.

Hal Denton emerged as the First Flight singles champion by defeating John Priest in the semi-finals 7-3, 7-3 and Terry Hunt 7-4, 7-4 in the finals. Hunt took out William "Buck" Brewer with a solid semis win of 7-4, 7-2. Hunt also shot a record four successful jump shots in one of his block matches to propel him into the knockout.
